

This popular Tuesday evening “armchair travel” cinema series season is underway with programs beginning at 7:00 p.m. in the Evergreen Auditorium. Enjoy exotic locales and the best in photography and film! Entry is by season ticket or $7 at the door for an individual program.

January 31, 2012 —with Monty Brown

“It’s Great Britain”

Big Ben, Parliament, Tower Bridge and Stonehenge. Talk about Great! But we’ll go further . . . enjoying the quaint English towns and on into Scotland, beyond Welsh castles, over the moors and along back roads.

February 28, 2012—Steve Gonser

“Majestic Montana”

Within Montana’s boundaries are 2 national parks, 10 national forests, 7 Indian reservations and 15 national wildlife refuges. Trace the steps of the Lewis & Clark Expedition, wander Yellowstone and Glacier.

March 20, 2012—with Rick Howard

“The Real World of Fiji”

Known as the friendliest islands in the Pacific, tribal customs control government, lifestyle and behavior. Spectacular coral reefs encircle unchanged primitive island flora and fauna. An amazing island nation.
